Nan-Dirk Mulder

Joined Rabobank International's Food & Agribusiness Advisory and Research department (FAR) in 2001. He is global animal protein specialist and has worked with many of the leading animal protein companies in the world. He is based in Rabobank's headquarter in Utrecht, the Netherlands.

Nan-Dirk graduated in agricultural economics, marketing and market research from the Netherlands' Wageningen Agricultural University in 1996. Before his appointment at Rabobank International, Nan-Dirk worked for the Product Boards for Livestock, Meat and Eggs (PVE) and the Agricultural Economic Research Institute (LEI) in the Netherlands.

Since joining Rabobank International, Nan-Dirk advises the bank on global commitments in the animal protein sectors. He has been also involved in the bank's many advisory and research activities in these sectors and has built up an in-depth knowledge about strategic issues in these industries. Nan-Dirk has advised and participated in projects on all continents of the world and is a regular speaker at conferences and seminars all over the world.
